

TrackXpense Developer guide

Checkout and download instructions

Source code can be found at

<https://github.com/sow30/TrackXpense>

Pre-requisites for build

1. Install Android Studio
2. Download Android SDK from
<http://developer.android.com/sdk/index.html>
3. Create a Virtual Device by Tools->Android->AVD Manager->Create Virtual Device.

Build instructions

1. Import the source code to local folder from git repository by the following command.
cd <local folder>
git clone <https://github.com/sow30/TrackXpense>
A new folder will be created.
2. Open the project in Android Studio
3. Go to Build->Rebuild Project
4. Go to Run -> Run Main Activity and select the newly created virtual device

Installation instructions

Steps to install the app into an android device

1. Connect the android device to system using a USB cable.

2. Enable USB debugging on android device by going to Settings -> Developer options
3. Install the application by typing the following code in command prompt.
adb install TrackXpense.apk
4. The app is now installed and ready to use.